MLB DRAFT PREVIEW

For the Angels, a second will be a first.

Securing the No. 2 overall pick during the 2025 MLB Draft Lottery, the Angels will add an impact youngster to the organization when, for the first time ever, the franchise chooses second overall.

Who will the Angels pick? The MLB Draft takes place July 13-15.

"It's exciting," general manager Perry Minasian told MLB.com. "It's obviously a huge difference [than a mid-round pick]. Our staff is very excited to have the opportunity to pick second. We've done a lot of work up to this point. We'll see how the spring goes and try to make the best pick we can."

For the Halos, the selection already marks a win. After all, they originally had the third-best odds for the No. 1 overall selection with a 17.96% chance of securing the top spot. Colorado and Miami each had the best odds at 22.45%.

The Angels twice had the No. 1 overall selection. Danny Goodwin was picked in 1975 and Darin Erstad was the choice twenty years later.

Dick Schofield (1981), Brian Anderson (1993), and Troy Glaus (1997) were each selected third overall.

ARTE & CAROLE MORENO

In May of 2003, Arte and Carole Moreno were introduced as the third owners in Angels franchise history and their impact was immediate. The Morenos have guided the franchise to six A.L. West Division titles and 17 seasons of drawing over three million fans, resulting in a total home attendance over 62 million fans.

Arte and Carole's focus is balanced between baseball, business operations and fan experience. During their tenure, the Morenos' support of the baseball operations department has resulted in the acquisition of many key players, including Hall of Famer Vladimir Guerrero, three-time N.L. MVP Albert Pujols, nine-time Gold Glover Torii Hunter, 2009 World Series MVP Hideki Matsui, 2005 A.L. Cy Young Award winner Bartolo Colón, and several others. In 2019, the Morenos signed three-time A.L. MVP Mike Trout to a record-setting 12-year contract extension, effectively keeping the 11-time All-Star a member of the Halos for the remainder of his historic career. In December of 2017, the Morenos oversaw the successful recruitment of two-way player and future Rookie of the Year and three-time MVP Shohei Ohtani.

To date, Arte and Carole's Clubs have featured six MVP's, a Cy Young winner, two Rookie of the Years and a Manager of the Year. In that span, no other organization has featured more than four MVP seasons.

Over the past 21 years, Arte and Carole have strengthened the Club's commitment to local communities. In 2004, the Morenos established the Angels Baseball Foundation, an organization concentrating on investments in education, health care, arts & sciences and community-related programs which provide opportunities for youth to experience the positive attributes of baseball. The Foundation distributes annual grants to various youth programs within Southern California. The Angels Scholars program works with the Orange County Office of Education and the college preparatory AVID program to award several annual college scholarships. Since purchasing the Club in 2003, the Morenos, the Angels and the Angels Baseball Foundation have contributed over $25 million to various charitable efforts with a primary focus in the Orange County area.

In 2010, the Angels were privileged to host their third All-Star Game (also 1967 & 1989). In conjunction with MLB's All-Star Legacy Fund, the foundation funded the renovation of softball fields at Anaheim's Pioneer Park (into the MLB Angels All-Star Complex) as well as a fully ADA adaptable synthetic turf field, safe for participants in wheelchairs and participants who use walkers. Prior to the 2022 season, the Angels Baseball Foundation, while partnering with Magical Builders and Anaheim Hills Little League, completely renovated two local little league fields, complete with new pitching mounds, backstops, 75 tons of infield mix and 6,500 square feet of hybrid-Bermuda grass. The Foundation also regularly donates tickets, memorabilia and ballpark experiences to the various groups and fundraisers.

Prior to their ownership of the Angels, the Morenos were part owners of the former Single-A Salt Lake Trappers of the Pioneer League. Under their leadership, the Trappers won three championships. Arte and Carole were also original investors in the Arizona Diamondbacks (including their 2001 World Series championship) and in a partnered ownership of the NBA's Phoenix Suns.

The Moreno family is also active in their own philanthropic efforts. In 1997, they established the Moreno Family Foundation to support nonprofit organizations focusing on youth and education, as well as investing in educational scholarships in K-8, high school and college. Their favorite charities include St. Vincent de Paul, St. Mary's Food Bank, the Barrow Neurological Institute, Boys & Girls Clubs, UMOM Homeless Shelters, American Heart Association and Fresh Start Women's Foundation. The Morenos were previously members of the Little League Foundation's Board of Trustees, which assists Little Leagues in every state and more than 70 other countries. For her continued philanthropic efforts, Carole Moreno was honored by the Girl Scouts of Orange County as their 2019 G.I.R.L. (Go-Getter, Innovator, Risk-Taker, Leader) honoree.

Carole was born in Reno, NV, and moved often as the daughter of a career Air Force man. She spent much of her youth in Fredonia, KS, and went on to earn a degree in journalism from the University of Kansas.

Arte is a native of Tucson, AZ, and served his country in Vietnam as a member of the U.S. Army. After his tour of duty, he attended the University of Arizona, graduating with a degree in marketing. In 2005, Time Magazine selected Moreno as one of the '25 Most Influential Hispanics in America' and was named by Bloomberg News' inaugural list of 100 Influential Latinos in 2022. Due to Arte's unwavering passion for the history of baseball, in July of 2018, he received the distinct honor of being elected to the Board of Directors for the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, NY.

Arte and Carole are the parents of three children.

2025 represents Dennis Kuhl's 22nd season with the Angels. A key figure in the organization's leadership for over two decades, he initially joined the Club on November 10, 2003 and was appointed as the Angels' seventh President before a promotion to Chairman on November 14, 2009. Kuhl's focus centers on renewed efforts in the area of civic affairs and community outreach. Additionally, he oversees the Angels' flagship radio station AM830 and serves as the President of the Angels Baseball Foundation.

Since joining the Angels, the Club has shown tremendous growth and advancement in key business initiatives, including sponsorship and marketing revenues streams, as well as nationwide expansion and promotion of the Angels' brand. He also played a key role in working with Major League Baseball in hosting of the 2010 All-Star Game at Angel Stadium, the third in the franchise's history and first since 1989.

A champion of community involvement, Kuhl's efforts span across Orange County and beyond. A founding board member of The Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation/Lott Trophy, Kuhl works with Susan G. Komen for the Cure serving as one of the "Pink Tie Guys," a select group of advocates speaking out to find a cure for breast cancer. Additionally, he serves on the advisory boards for the South County Outreach, Boys and Girls Club of Orange Coast Irvine Public School Foundation, Kindervision, and the Angels Baseball Foundation Board of Directors. He is a member of the Board of Governors at Chapman University and on the board of directors for several nonprofits: The Los Angeles Sports Council, Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Anaheim-Cypress, the Noble Vikings Charity of Orange County, Abound Food Care and the Angels RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) program. He also sits on the Board of Directors for Servite High School as well as the Advisory Board for the Tiger Wood Foundation.

A Boonton, NJ native, Kuhl graduated from the University of Arizona in 1970 with a degree in business administration. In honor of his late father, he established the Bud Kuhl Wood Bat Invitational in 2007 with annual proceeds donated to local charities. Kuhl also initiated scholarships in his father's name to the Eller School of Management at the University of Arizona. In 2009, he was named the "Business Man of the Year" by the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce. Kuhl currently resides in Newport Beach.

As the principal executive in charge of business operations, Carpino has helped welcome over three million fans through Angel Stadium turnstiles 10 different times since 2009. Additionally, ESPN The Magazine rated the Angels as the #1 MLB franchise in nine of Carpino's first 11 years with the organization.

The Chicago native continues to create value for fans, focusing not only on the game inside the lines, but on the entire ballpark experience. He has guided the Angel brand with a focus on affordable pricing while providing a quality family environment, including continual stadium improvements and enhancements. Under his leadership, Carpino's staff has also established Angel Stadium as one of the premiere destinations in California for non-baseball events such as concerts, Supercross, Monster Jam and corporate events.

As one of the initial executives appointed by Owner Arte Moreno after purchasing the Club, the 2025 season marks Carpino's 22nd with the team, having previously held the post of Senior Vice President. Carpino has led the Angels to unprecedented financial growth in sponsorship, marketing and ticketing. He also assisted in the acquisition of high-profile players such as two-time A.L. MVP Shohei Ohtani and 3-time MVP Albert Pujols, as well as the historic 12-year contract extension for three-time MVP Mike Trout.

His vision and creativity have brought an emphasis on the Angels' heritage with a reintroduction of the Club's Hall of Fame, hosting of fan events and celebration of team history. Popular giveaways have included several world record-breaking items and those showcasing the popularity of the Rally Monkey. His efforts continue to create a brand that remains connected to its rich tradition while elevating the Angels Organization on a global level.

Carpino's promotion followed six seasons as the Angels Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing during which he oversaw all aspects of marketing, promotions and ticket sales. He began his professional career in 1982 in the billboard industry, including stints in Tucson, Chicago, Phoenix and Los Angeles. In 1985, he joined Moreno at Outdoor Systems, a billboard company (which later became Viacom Outdoor in 2000 and CBS Outdoor in 2005) and spent 18 years in the Phoenix and Los Angeles markets. Carpino oversaw $200 million in sales for the western region. Carpino is a 1982 graduate of the University of Arizona with a degree in business administration.

In 2017, he was inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame.

He and wife Elizabeth are involved in numerous charitable efforts throughout Southern California and support the Angels Baseball Foundation. John and Elizabeth have three children and reside in Laguna Beach.

Minasian, 44, joined the Angels after a three-year stint (2018-2020) with the Atlanta Braves and his impact on the Halos was immediate. Over his four-year tenure, Minasian's focus has been on fortifying the Major League roster with impact players like World Series MVP Jorge Soler and All-Star pitchers Yusei Kikuchi, Carlos Estévez, and Tyler Anderson, while also overseeing the advancement of Angels farmhands Zach Neto, Ben Joyce, Reid Detmers, and Caden Dana.

With a background in player development, Minasian's drafts or acquisitions have produced numerous impact players on the Major League roster, including Logan O'Hoppe, Neto, Joyce, Sam Bachman, Chase Silseth and Nolan Schanuel who made his Major League debut in Aug. 2023, less than two months after being drafted. Additionally, Minasian and his staff have either drafted or acquired each of the Club's top 10 prospects according to MLB.com.

MOTHER'S DAY AT THE BIG A

This Mother's Day, Angel Stadium proudly recognized Sharon Evans through the Angels annual Honorary Bat Girl program. Each year, the Angels nominate a member of the community who has been affected by breast cancer. This year's honoree is a mother and a fighter, who selflessly gives countless hours to serve the community. Sharon has beaten cancer once and has started her fight once again. She was recognized as Little League District 30's Volunteer of the Year and has been a pillar of strength for her family. Since 2003, Major League Baseball organizations have teamed up with Susan G. Komen to go to bat against the disease by raising awareness and nearly $2 million for the friends and families affected. This season, the Angels are thrilled to continue that tradition.

ANGELS WELCOME BIG BROTHERS BIG SISTERS OF ORANGE COUNTY & THE INLAND EMPIRE

Angels Baseball Foundation hosted a career panel at Angel Stadium for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Orange County and the Inland Empire. Angels business leaders shared their experiences of how they reached their leadership positions and provided insight into the sports industry. Students were educated on the importance of mentorship and perseverance, and had the opportunity to ask questions to help pursue their future careers!

A PROUD PARTNER OF THE ANGELS™

HONORED BY THE HALOS

The Angels recently recognized the winners of the 37th Annual CIF Southern Section – FORD Academic Awards program at Angel Stadium.

Based on a cumulative grade point average, team awards were awarded in 28 team sports with entries from 2,590 teams received this year. Among the 35 different CIF-SS member schools represented throughout the team winners were the Centaurs / Culver City High School girls lacrosse team.

Katelynn Naylor is a team captain and represented her squad on the field at the pregame event. She later contributed to Angel Magazine the following first-hand account of the unique experience:

When it was announced by our athletic director that our lacrosse team had earned the highest GPA in CIF for large schools and we earned ourselves tickets to the Angels game, I was ecstatic.

I also couldn't have been more excited to go on the field as my coach chose me to represent Culver City High School Girls Lacrosse. I was surprised at the amount of other teams that were present.

As my teammates started arriving at the stadium, we jumped in the line to take a picture with a balloon background and a banner for our team. As the rest of my team headed into the stadium, we waited in line while supervisors made sure we were all lined up in order.

After a short wait, we entered the stadium under the stands, and looking out onto the field, the sun was shining and the grass looked so green it seemed unreal. After receiving directions of where to walk, all the athletic teams lined up on the field, and within five minutes we were in front of the cameras on the big screen having our school announced.

Exiting the field, the playing area felt tiny, but when we got to our seats, it looked like it had grown three times bigger. The whole experience felt surreal. Everything was extremely well organized to where it felt almost short even though it lasted a couple hours.

I am so proud of my team and extremely happy we could be recognized at this special event. Multiple parents, siblings and even grandparents came to support us. The Angels could not have made it more memorable.

Moving on to play college lacrosse next year, it was such a great last event with the team for me. We had high energy and we were able to relax in a fun setting. I will forever cherish that day and I'm so blessed I had the opportunity to share it with the people I love and care about most.

Growing up watching every sport on TV, my inner child was going crazy. I have been to multiple baseball games before, but I am always more excited the next time I go than I was the last time.

EMMA SMITH / Culver City HS lacrosse junior defender:

"My experience at the Angels game with my team was unforgettable. The energy from our student section was electric and stood out from the rest of the crowd. While our team was incredibly grateful to be recognized, it was just as inspiring to see other teams from the area celebrated for their achievements as well. It was truly a special night, and I'm deeply thankful to the Angels organization for giving us the opportunity to be part of such an incredible event."

CAMI KEOUGH / Culver City HS lacrosse junior middie:

"It was a great team bonding experience, being able to share such a great achievement with my team. I'm not surprised we won this award due to the insane amount of work these girls put into their education throughout the school year. I could not be happier for my team."

THE BIG A

The 2025 season marks the 60th season for the Angels playing home games at Angel Stadium. After spending their first five years of existence playing at Wrigley Field (1961) and Chavez Ravine (1962-65), the Halos landed in their new home in Orange County in 1966. Since opening the doors for its first exhibition game Apr. 9, 1966, Angel Stadium has played host to some of the Club's memorable events including seven A.L. West Division clinching games (1979, 1982, 1986, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2014), three All-Star Games (1967, 1989 and 2010) and the 2002 World Series, including the Angels Game 7 victory over the San Francisco Giants to clinch the franchise's first championship. Angel Stadium has also seen several individual Halos leave their indelible marks on the game of baseball. Whether it be the seven Angels no-hitters, Rod Carew's 3,000th hit, Reggie Jackson's 500th home run, Don Sutton's 300th win or Albert Pujols' 600th home run, Angel Stadium has housed some of Major League Baseball's most prestigious accomplishments.

Presently, Angel Stadium sits as baseball's fourth-oldest ballpark, trailing only Boston's Fenway Park, Chicago's Wrigley Field and Los Angeles' Dodger Stadium. Affectionately known as "The Big A", Angel Stadium has seen over 125 million fans pass through its gates since 1966, including a stretch of 17 consecutive full seasons drawing over three million fans, a streak only the Angels and Yankees achieved from 2003-19.

After an Aug. 31, 1964 groundbreaking ceremony, Anaheim Stadium, as it was originally known, was completed in 1966 at a cost of $24 million. The facility's centerpiece was a giant A-frame scoreboard standing 230 feet high and was the source of the stadium's nickname.

With a seating capacity of 43,250, Anaheim Stadium was built with "Convenience, Comfort and Courtesy" in mind. Narrow foul territory areas and quickly rising decks gave fans an up-close view of the action. Gradually-inclined ramps, escalators, wide aisles and helpful ushers as well as three surrounding freeways, 26 entrance lanes and 28 exit lanes added to the Big A's accessibility.

Anaheim Stadium under went construction to enclose the stadium in 1979 for additional seating to accommodate the Rams' football games. Seating capacity was increased to 64,593 for baseball and more than 70,000 for football. A total of 108 executive style boxes were added to surround the rear of the Club Level. In addition to the Stadium Club, there were two other private dining areas designed for groups — the Stadium Pavilion and the Football Press Box.

At that time, the Big A board was preserved and moved to the edge of the parking lot adjacent to the Orange Freeway behind the right field area.

When the Rams left for St. Louis, Anaheim Stadium's primary tenant remained the Angels, who originally signed a 35-year contract (through 2001). Renovations began Oct. 1, 1996, to revert the 30-year old structure back to a baseball-only facility and the ballpark was renamed Edison International Field. The total cost for the stadium renovation was estimated at $100 million and the project was completed in time for the Angels' Opening Day, Apr. 1, 1998. New enhancements were added all around the ballpark but perhaps the most noticeable is the center field waterfalls and rock formation that come together to form an "A". Settled inside the waterfall's rapids are water geysers that originally shot water into the air whenever an Angels player hit a home run.

Other features of the renovations included terraced bullpens in the outfield, widened concourses, new restroom and concession areas, family-oriented seating sections, state-of-the-art club-level and dugout-level suites, a youth-oriented interactive game area and landscaped courtyards (with statues in remembrance of Gene Autry and Michelle Carew).

In addition, Angel Stadium includes two full-service restaurants: Brewery X (a sports bar located at the club level down the right field line) and the Lexus Diamond Club (an upscale restaurant with outdoor seating on the field level behind home plate). In 2014, the newest luxury seating area was added to the ballpark with the opening of HALO, now known as the Don Julio Club.

During the 2016 and 2017 offseasons, Angel Stadium underwent several major upgrades. The first round of improvements began immediately following the 2016 season when a new state of the art LED stadium light system was installed. The following offseason, Angel Stadium received one of it's largest technological enhancements to date. In Oct. 2017, the Angels partnered with Daktronics to bring 14 LED displays, including two new video boards in both left and right field to Angel Stadium. At the time it was installed, the right field display was the third largest in Major League Baseball at 9,500 square feet and features 7.7 million LEDs. Eight ribbon displays totaling 1,168 feet in length were also installed along the seating fascia to provide additional statistics and graphics. The largest of these included the entire fascia length along the first and third baselines. Finally, a new scoreboard replaced the existing board on the right field wall. In total, the Club added more than 23,000 square feet of new LED displays to their home venue.

Also installed prior to the 2018 season was a new state-of-the art sound system. The main seating bowl now has 300 speakers plus more than 50 subwoofers and is powered by 200,000 watts.

With the enhancements made throughout the course of the past several years, Angel Stadium proudly maintains the title of the fourth-oldest ballpark in the Majors while offering its guests access to some of the latest technological amenities. As a result, Angel Stadium continues to be one of Southern California's most unique sports venues.

THE BIG A

Nestled in the corner of the Angel Stadium parking lot is one of the ballpark's most recognizable features, "The Big A" message board. With the completion of Anaheim Stadium in 1966, the facility's centerpiece was a giant A-frame scoreboard standing 230 feet high. At the time, it was the largest scoreboard ever constructed and became the source of the stadium's nickname. The Big A's original home was just beyond the left field wall where it served as the facility's main scoreboard for over a decade. When the stadium underwent construction to accommodate the Los Angeles Rams in 1979, The Big A was preserved and moved to its current location in the southeastern corner of the parking lot, adjacent to the 57 freeway. Contractors used a 125-ton crane and two large dollies to move the structure over 1,200 feet across the stadium lots.

The Angels have long utilized The Big A to celebrate each of the club's victories. After every Angel win, both home and road, the 70-foot wide halo atop the Big A is illuminated for fans both inside the ballpark and out to see. It is customary for the halo to remain lit until dawn of the day following a victory. The Angels are one of the few sports franchises whose post-victory tradition signals a win to all within sight of their facility.

Since its construction in 1966, The Big A has undergone several modifications and facelifts. The scoreboard's original color palette was all white with a gold halo before becoming green, gold and beige when the stadium was renamed Edison Field. In February 2002, with the club switching their uniform scheme back to red as the primary color, the Big A was painted red and beige. The landmark then underwent additional changes after the 2009 season when the structure was painted all red. A new full-color display was added to the front facade, replacing the former dot-matrix board and a new halo was placed at the top. A third extensive renovation took place prior to the 2018 season as part of Angel Stadium's overall enhancements. The Big A received a new LED marquee, illuminated Angel Stadium sign and a new modernized LED Halo adorned the top of the famed structure.

As it currently sits, the Club has the ability to display full pictures, texts and graphics as well as turn the halo nearly any color it desires. The most commonly displayed colors on the structure's crown are red, white, blue, green and orange.

THE BIG

The Angels extended their lease at Angel Stadium.

Calling Angel Stadium home since 1966, the Angels will remain at The Big A through 2029. The extension is the first of three that can be exercised under the agreement which was announced in February.

“We are excited to announce that we have extended our lease securing the Big A as the home of Angels Baseball into the next decade,” Angels spokesperson Marie Garvey said. “As we prepare for our 60th season in Anaheim, we wanted our fans and community partners to know that Angels Baseball and its foundation remain committed to being an active part of this city and region.”

The stadium is owned by the city of Anaheim.

Player Spotlight

TRAVIS d'ARNAUD

By Savannah Sharp

Q: What's your pre-game routine?

A: For me it starts when I wake up, I eat about seven hours before the game and three hours before the game so I have a couple meals in me. Four hours before the game I have a pitcher/catcher meeting to go over the game plan. After that I like to get my body loose. I'll go into the cage and go through my routine, not trying to do too much before the game. Then I'll have a meeting with the starter to go over the game plan. An hour and 20 minutes before the game I will get stretched by Frosty (Angels trainer Mike Frostad), who used to stretch me when I was in Atlanta. After that stretch I'll go back and do a 10 minute hip stretch and t-spine stretch. I usually walk out 45 minutes before the game, and right at 40 minutes before the game, I start playing catch and go through my pre-game routine. Before you know it the game starts.

Q: What's your favorite post-game meal?

A: For me it's chicken teriyaki. That would be my death row meal too. I really love it.

Q: You're originally from Long Beach, how does it feel to be back in California and closer to home?

A: It's a blessing, now that I have a wife and kids and our oldest is in kindergarten. Normally when guys get to this point in their career, they don't get to see their kids until June or July, when school's over. I'm very lucky and blessed that they'll be able to be right by home and to be able to see them all the time.

Q: What have you always wanted to learn or try but haven't yet?

A: I know how to cook a little but I would like to go to culinary school. They used to give out college scholarship programs back in the day so I've always been curious if I could use that for culinary school at some point. It's only six months or something like that.

Q: Do you have a nickname on the team and if you do, who gave it to you?

A: On previous teams I had a couple. One was Daddy because I had two kids. It was during the season when we won a World Series when I was with Atlanta, so that nickname stuck somehow, I'm not sure. The other one is Little D because my last name has a lower case. Those are the two I've had. When you join a new team it's whatever they come up with. Either way I'm game.

Q: If you could play any other position, which would it be and why?

A: I would want to play second base because I'd still be up the middle so I'm in a lot of action. And I don't need to move around as much as shortstop.

Q: You have an older brother who was also in the major leagues, Chase. What was that like growing up playing baseball with him?

A: For me I was just trying to be like my bigger brother. He started before I did, so I just try to emulate and be exactly like him. That basically carried on all the way to pro ball. He made it to the big leagues first so I just keep trying to be like him. Truthfully I still try to be like him as he's one of my heroes. I get to talk to him everyday and now we live a minute from each other and our kids are always able to play together too.

Q: If baseball wasn't your career, what would you have done instead?

A: Something with math. I don't know exactly what but maybe engineering. It kind of runs in my family. Math always came easy to me so probably something in that field.

Q: What advice would you give to young catchers?

A: Learn your pitchers. Not only as a pitcher but as a person. There are going to be big moments in games where you are going to want to call something and he won't (like it). If you guys have that trust in each other, that'll be a lot easier of a conversation on the mound versus if you guys are butting heads all the time.

Q: What's your go-to hype-up song before a game?

A: I think it's called White Tee.

15の質問 / 菊池雄星
インタビュアー:東江ケイラ

1. カリフォルニアでの生活で、特にお気に入りの点は何でしょうか？

やっぱり日本食が多いから、すごく「ご飯がおいしいなー」というのが一番だし、あと天気。いつも晴れててすごい好きですね。

2. 野球を始められたきっかけについて教えていただけますか？

兄が野球をしていたので、兄の影響ですね。当時は近所のみんなが野球やってたので、それで始めました。

3. これまでのキャリアの中で、どのようなものがモチベーションとなり、最高レベルで野球を続ける原動力となってきたのでしょうか？

やっぱり夢を常に持ってます。日本にいる時はメジャーに来るのが夢だったし、メジャーに来てからは優勝することだったりとか、それが夢でやってます。常にちっちゃい頃から「夢を持ちながらやる」というのがモチベーションかなと思います。

4. 日本とアメリカ、それぞれの野球のスタイルについて、良い点・課題だと感じる点をお聞かせください。

そうですね。やっぱりアメリカで7年プレーして、アメリカの方が正直、日本よりも野球は進んでいます。それはもうすごい距離があると思います。毎年それが広がってると思うので。日本の野球もやはりアメリカの野球からたくさんのことを学ぶ必要が正直あると思う。ただ日本の良さもあるので、うまくバランスをとりながらやってくことが大事かなとは思います。

5. アメリカでの生活を通じて、ご自身にどのような変化を感じられましたか？また、最初にカルチャーショックを受けた出来事は何でしたか？

6. 国際的な舞台を目指したいと思われたのは、どのようなタイミングだったのでしょうか？

18歳の時、高校時代に日本のプロ野球に行くか、アメリカのメジャーにそのまま行くかで悩んだ時期があって、その時は日本でプレーする事に決めたんですけど、日本でプレーしながら、18歳くらいからずっと「いつかはアメリカで」、という思いはありました。

7. 試合前に必ず行うルーティンや、ジンクスのようなものがあれば教えてください。

いっぱいあります。スーパーシテイションはないですけど、ルーティン、何時に起きて、ご飯はこれを食べて、試合前はうどん食べて、みたいのはけっこうあります。

フォローアップ：あの、よく寝るって聞いたんですけど、それはどういうことですか？

はい、よく寝ますね。(笑) 試合がない日は、大体朝8時とか9時には起きるんですけど、僕が投げる日だけは、もう出来る限り寝る。起きちゃうと野球の事をどうしても考えちゃって、エネルギー使われちゃう感じがするので試合の時だけはもう、昼まで寝てます。

8. 私自身、日本のラクロス代表合宿に初めて参加した際、プレースタイルや雰囲気、言語の違いに戸惑いました。アメリカの野球に適応する際、同じような経験はありましたか？

もう言葉はいまだに分からない事はたくさんあるし、特に最初の1、2年は怖いと思った時もあったけど、そこでトライしないといつまでたっても覚えないと思って。逆に僕が日本でプレーしている時、日本にプレーしに来た外国人選手が、分からなくても「おはよー！」とか簡単な言葉とかをトライしてくれる。そんなアメリカ人の選手と仲良くなれた事からも、日本語が分からなくてもトライする選手はチームに溶け込むというのを見てきました。今度は僕が外国人の選手の立場になったわけだから、それはやっぱり英語がしゃべれないから日本人ばっかりで固まるんじゃなくて、とにかく当時は挨拶ぐらいしか言えなかったけど、どんどん言い続けて「don't be shy-とにかくしゃべる！」を意識しましたね。

9. プロを目指す過程において、常に大切にされてきた習慣や信念があれば教えてください。

10. これまでプレーされた都市の中で、特に印象に残っている街はありますか？また、理想的なスタジアムの雰囲気とは、どのようなものだとお考えですか？

エンゼルスで今プレーしてるので、勿論このスタジアムは好きですけど、それ以外で考えるとやっぱりトロントでプレーした時間が楽しかったですね。メジャーリーグでカナダに本拠地を置くチームはブルージェイズのみなのですが、カナダ人みんなが応援してくれた感じと、そこで3年間プレー出来た事がすごく嬉しかったです。理想を言えばやっぱり暖かい中で試合したいという思いもあるのでカリフォルニアでプレー出来るのはすごく魅力的ですね。

11. 一生に、日本のコンビニスナックをひとつしか食べられないとしたら、どの商品を選ばれますか？

おおお！一種類か。(笑)　いっぱいでもいいの？　(はい)。じゃあおにぎり！豚まん！はい。(笑)

12. 海外でのプロスポーツを目指す日本の若いアスリートたちに向けて、どのようなアドバイスを送られますか？

早いうち挑戦した方がいいと思います。やっぱり日本に戻ることはいつでも出来るんですけど、海外に挑戦するのはずっと早い方がチャンスが広がるので。もう行きたいなら、行ける条件とか、家族のサポートとかあるのであれば、もうなるべく早く行く。僕は野球しか分からないけど、多分他のスポーツも同様で日本とアメリカでは違うと思うし、日本のサッカーとヨーロッパのサッカーも全く違うと思うんですよ。だから「海外になるべく早く来て、若いうちにいろんな失敗を繰り返すこと！」それが最もアドバイスしたい事ですね。

13. 異文化環境の中で、ご自身の「人」として、また「選手」としてのアイデンティティを、どのように築いてこられましたか？

やっぱり日本人としての気持ちは勿論大事なんですけど逆にそこを捨てなければいけないとこもあって、やはりアメリカに来たらアメリカ人になる。なりきる。そういうのも必要かな、と。日本人だから静かにじゃなくて、アメリカに来たなら、自分から自分の意見を言う、というのは大事ですね。

14. 野球人生の中で、「アメリカに来て本当によかった」と感じた象徴的な瞬間があれば、ぜひ教えてください。

それは毎試合思います。やっぱりずっと目指したところで投げる事が出来るのだから、「毎試合、本当にここでプレー出来て幸せだなーっ」て常に思ってやってますね。

15. エンゼルスに加入された当初、どの選手と一緒にプレーするのを最も楽しみにしていらっしゃいましたか？その理由もお聞かせください。

COLLEGE DAYS RYAN JOHNSON

Before Ryan Johnson made the Angels Opening Day Roster without a single day spent in the minor leagues...

Before Johnson became the 24th player in MLB history to go straight from the Draft to the Majors without first playing in the minor leagues, and the first since Garrett Crochet in 2020 and first Angel since Jim Abbott in 1989...

Before Johnson became the first Angels player to make his MLB Debut on Opening Day since 2018, and the first hurler to do so since 2008...

Before Johnson worked in relief to earn his second career Major League save on back-to-back nights after recording his first save the game prior...

And even before Johnson briefly left the Halos in April on paternity leave...

The Angels selected Johnson out of Dallas Baptist University (DBU) with the 74th overall pick of the 2024 Major League Baseball Draft. He became the sixth-highest draft pick in school history.

A junior from Red Oak, Texas, Johnson at DBU was a consensus All-American and Conference USA Pitcher of the Year in 2024 after going 11-3 with a 2.21 ERA in 16 starts.

In one of the most historic seasons in school history, Johnson set the Patriots' record for strikeouts in a season with 151. The Patriot legend also became DBU's all-time leader in strikeouts with 314 punchouts over his three-year career. Johnson finished the year ranked in the top 10 nationally in six categories, including third in strikeout-to-walk ratio (10.79), fourth in strikeouts (151) and walks allowed per nine innings (1.19), fifth in wins (11), sixth in ERA (2.21), and 10th in WHIP (0.92).

In three seasons at DBU, Johnson has compiled a 22-9 record with a 3.46 ERA in 50 appearances (40 starts). The Patriots' strikeout king ranks in the top 10 in school history in eight categories, including first in strikeouts (314), second in WHIP (1.10), third in wins (22) and base on balls per nine innings (2.07), fourth in strikeouts per nine innings (11.20), sixth in ERA and innings pitched (252.0), and seventh in starts (40)

Johnson also became the sixth player in program history to be selected by the Angels' organization, joining Ken Bandy (1986), Colin Charland (1986), Kenny Hatcher (2012), Michael Smith (2013), and Tim Millard (2018).

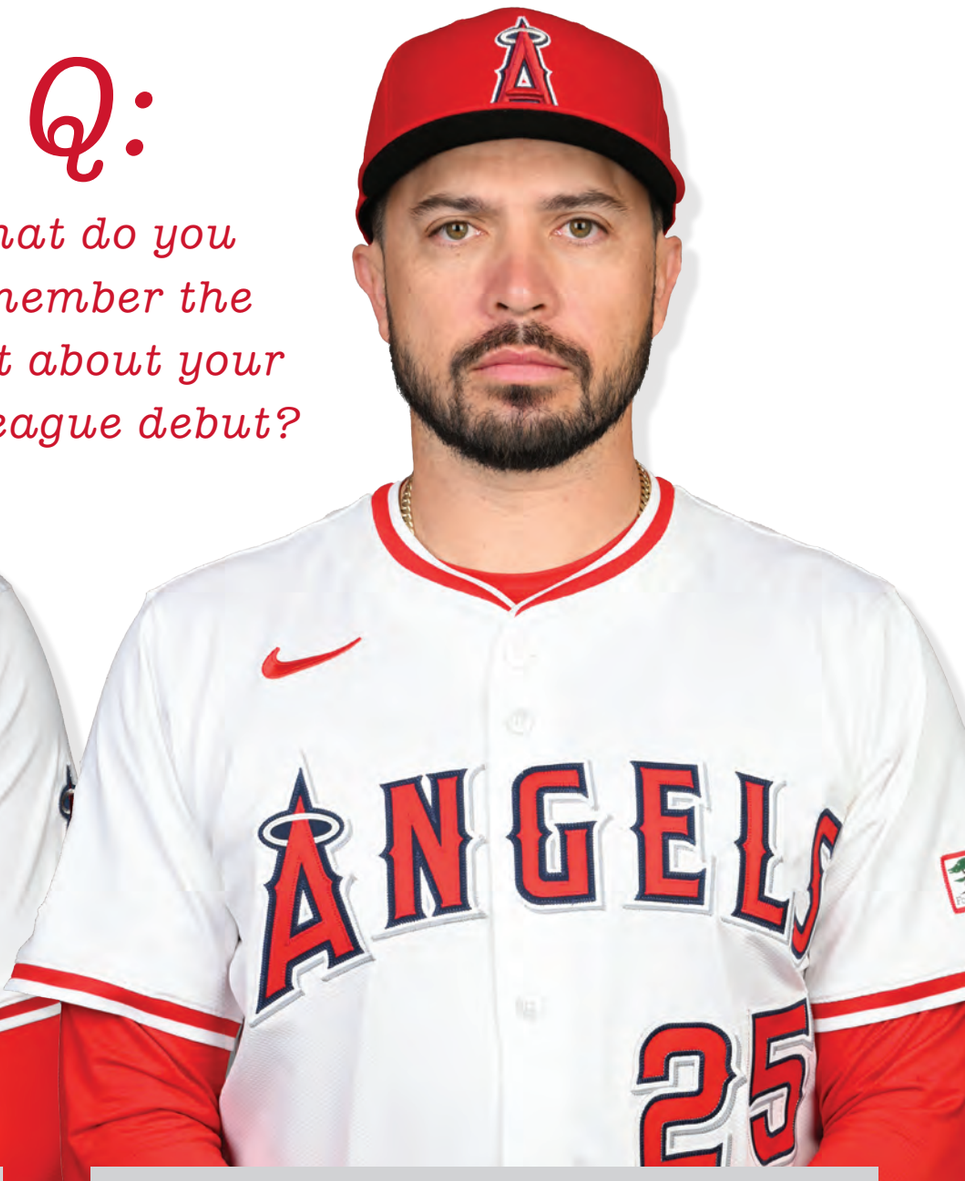
MY BIG LEAGUE DEBUT

TRAVIS D'ARNAUD AND KENLEY JANSEN

Q:

What do you remember the most about your big league debut?



KENLEY JANSEN:

A. I was very nervous. I couldn't feel my legs. I think it was three pitches to punch out. Once I threw that first strike and then the second, and it was 0-2, I just let it go. I told myself, 'Okay, I can play here in the big leagues.' So that was fun.

TRAVIS D'ARNAUD:

A: The biggest thing I remember is that I had too much pine tar on my batting gloves so when I walked and I went to throw my bat to the dugout, I threw it up in the air like 20 feet. That's what I remember most. Also that it was in San Diego where my dad grew up and my grandpa lived at the time, so to have my whole family there was special.

DUCKS NIGHT

It was a great night in the sports neighborhood.

Before the baseball season began and the hockey regular season concluded, the Halos took to Honda Center, walking across the street to celebrate Angels Night.

Angels alumni and former All-Star pitchers Chuck Finley, Mark Langston and Jered Weaver participated in the ceremonial puck drop ahead of the game, which featured a blend of the Ducks and Angels gameday presentations, co-branded merchandise, Angels giveaways and more Angels-themed surprises.

In addition, the first 5,000 fans in attendance received a limited-edition baseball jersey giveaway, and an array of autographed memorabilia raised money with proceeds benefiting the Anaheim Ducks Foundation and Angels Baseball Foundation.

ON THE MAP

(CREDIT: ELIAS)

To begin the month of May, the Angels began a streak of 26 consecutive games in the state of California.

It was the longest streak in Angels history (previous: 23-game streaks in 2011 and 2021).

ANGELS BASEBALL AND BANDAI NAMCO GROUP LAUNCH PAC-MAN THEMED LEVEL UP ARCADE AT ANGEL STADIUM

Located in the Right Field Pavilion at Angel Stadium, Level Up by Bandai Namco Features Free to Play Arcade Games and Popular Gashapon Prize Vending Machines

The Angels and PAC-MAN are a winning team.

This season, Bandai Namco Group took its continuing partnership with Angels Baseball a step further with the opening of Level Up by Bandai Namco, a new entertainment and video game arcade within Angel Stadium -- the first of its kind in a Major League Baseball ballpark.

The introduction of a PAC-MAN themed arcade and entertainment center expands on the partnership between the Angels and Bandai Namco. The two organizations first partnered in 2022, forming a natural union between Orange County-based Bandai Namco, a global entertainment company known as the creator of PAC-MAN and other iconic games, and the Angels.

Located at Angel Stadium's Right Field Pavilion, Level Up offers a vibrant and interactive experience for fans of all ages with arcade games, prize machines, and a unique PAC-MAN inspired photo op. The arcade features a range of games that are free to play for visitors, featuring popular and fun multiplayer titles such as World's Largest PAC-MAN, PAC-MAN Battle Royale Chompionship and PAC-MAN's Pixel Bash featuring more than 30 iconic Bandai Namco games such as Dig Dug, Galaga, and the original PAC-MAN. In addition to games, guests can try their hand at Gashapon, the mega-popular Japanese vending machine for toys and prizes. With Gashapon tokens available for purchase, fans can collect miniatures from their favorite anime, video games, charms, and more.

Born on May 22, 1980, PAC-MAN immediately gained a following as a whimsical and fun classic arcade game and quickly rose to pop culture fame. With notable brand recognition around the world, PAC-MAN's brand is one of the most recognized on the planet and continues to live on as he enters his 45th year of entertaining fans of all ages.

"The Angels are excited to continue our partnership with Bandai Namco for the 2025 season and beyond," said Angels Chairman Dennis Kuhl. "Bandai Namco is a global entertainment company with strong ties in Southern California. This collaboration signifies a shared commitment to our fans, as the Level Up area at Angel Stadium will provide a unique experience to our guests of all ages."

"Our partnership with the Angels and being able to support our home MLB team has been one of the highlights of our move to Orange County," said Koji Fujiwara, President & CEO, Bandai Namco Entertainment America Inc. "For the past four years, it has been a thrill to bring our iconic entertainment brands into the stadium and find fun ways to connect with Angels fans. We hope the Level Up arcade brings fans and their families even more enjoyment on those memorable days at the ballpark.»

Alumni Spotlight

ALBERT PUJOLS AND THE D.R.

Q: What was the experience like in managing Leones del Escogido to a Dominican Winter League championship title and a Caribbean Series championship over the winter?

A: It was awesome and I had a great time. I had the opportunity to be the manager and lead the team I grew up as a little boy watching and later have the opportunity to play for. To now be the manager is exciting. We have great players and a great coaching staff. It was a great time and I learned a lot.

Q: What did you learn?

A: For me, as a player, you look at things differently. As a manager there are different responsibilities. You have the players and you have to communicate with them. I think communication as a manager is huge. It's about what they expect from you and what you expect from them. Then there is the process of the roster as to who you are going to go with after somebody gets hurt. You have guys on the roster every week and you have guys to put on a roster every day. Another thing is having guys from different countries -- American guys, Dominican, Cuban, Venezuelan – you learn their culture as you try and get to know the guy. To learn that and to be able to communicate with them I think was the best part. It helps build relationships, and helps build a great team.

Q: How much did this experience help when it comes to potentially managing in MLB?

A: I don't think managing in the Winter League decreases or gives me more desire to get with a big league ballclub. I have always had that desire. If the opportunity is right and the door opens for me, I have said it openly – I want to have the opportunity to be a big league manager if the opportunity is right. I think doing it in Winter Ball this year gave me the experience I needed. I learned and it prepared me for a big job.

Q: Could you see yourself managing in the big leagues as soon as 2026?

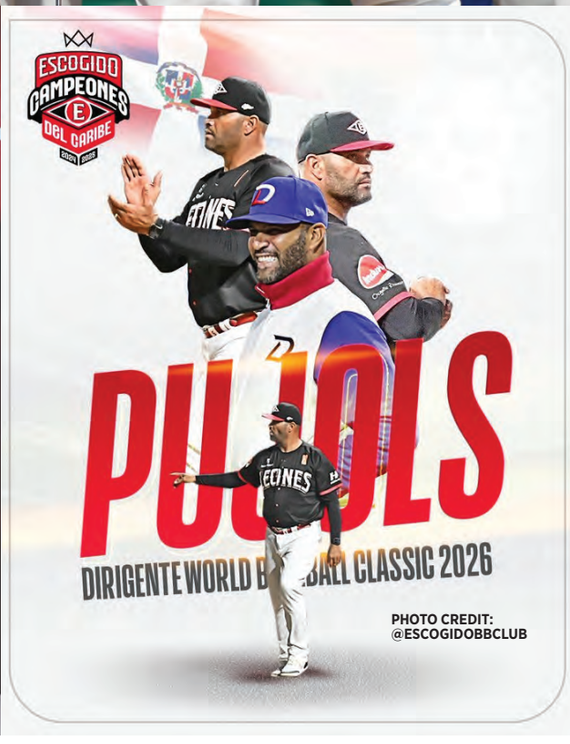
A: Time will tell wherever the opportunity will come. If there is some team knocking this year or next year, why not? Right now I have a job which is focusing on the World Baseball Classic.

Q: How do you feel about managing at the 2026 World Baseball Classic?

A: They are giving me the opportunity and that is another (open) door for me. I feel really proud to be not only able to represent my county as a player but to lead a group of guys. I am pumped up. I thank (General Manager) Nelson Cruz and the committee – Vladdy (Vladimir Guerrero), Adrián Beltré, and Edwin Encarnación are some of the guys on the committee group. They trust me with this opportunity that I am going to do my job to help the ballclub. It is about taking the World Baseball Classic back to the Dominican Republic.

A native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, former Angels All-Star Albert Pujols has a rich history representing his home country in baseball, first as a player and now as a manager.

Pujols, who also serves as Special Assistant with the Angels, was recently named the Manager of the D.R.'s entry into the 2026 World Baseball Classic, which takes place next March.



Clyde Wright on

KYLE HENDRICKS

Interview conducted by Sophia Cuteño

Former Angels standout Clyde Wright has not pitched for the Halos since 1973. But his fingerprints are firmly on current Angels right-hander Kyle Hendricks, who Wright has mentored via the Clyde Wright Pitching School, an academy he operated for decades in Anaheim, since Hendricks was a youngster growing up in Orange County.

Wright recently answered these questions about Hendricks, who signed with the Angels as a free agent this past winter:

Q: Why did you initially start a pitching school after your playing days were over?

A: My wife came to me and said, 'I've got it. I know what you can do. With your personality and the way you talk to kids and people, you should open a pitching school.'

FAST FACTS:

- Kyle was born in Newport Beach and attended Capistrano High School in Mission Viejo.
- Kyle's father John worked in the Angels Ticket Office when Kyle was a kid.
- Kyle was originally drafted by the Angels in the 39th Round in the 2008 MLB Amateur Draft. He chose to attend Dartmouth College and was later drafted by Texas in the eighth round.
- One of Kyle's biggest influences while with the Cubs was teammate John Lackey, who pitched for the Angels for the first eight years of his career.
- It was not until his 12th big league season that he took the mound at Angel Stadium (April 19, 2025). He earned his first win on May 3.

Q: How did it all begin?

A: It was located at Home Run Park in Anaheim. I went to talk to the owner where he told me he thought it would work out well and thought it was a great idea.

Q: What are some of your key coaching principles?

A: I don't have any. The only thing is you have to have fun doing what you love to do. The biggest thing I see nowadays is it's just not as much fun.

Q: When was the first time you met Kyle, and what stood out to you about Kyle then?

A: I came to know his father first and Kyle and I golfed together. My first impression of Kyle was, 'This kid is competitive.'

Q: How would you describe Kyle's work ethic?

A: If I had to put it on a number scale, it would be a 10 out of 10. He takes everything in detail and works hard.

Q: How would you describe his pitching mechanics and his ability to succeed as a pitcher?

A: He has super mechanics. He has a super delivery.

Q: What is your greatest memory of Kyle as a young teen, and then later as a pro pitcher?

A: His location and his determination. And then I would say his will to succeed has made him an amazing pitcher.

Q: How closely have you followed his baseball journey over the years?

A: All the way through high school. I would watch him grow and develop. I always saw potential in him and thought he had a good chance at playing somewhere. It worked out well for him.

Q: How did you feel when you learned Kyle joined the Angels?

A: I was incredibly happy. I had a feeling and I knew he wanted to be close to home so the Angels were a perfect fit.

Q: How great a moment was it for you the first time you saw him pitch in an Angels uniform?

A: It was an indescribable feeling of joy and I felt extremely proud of him.

Q: And finally, whether as someone who has operated their own school, or simply based on your own playing experience, what is one piece of advice you would give a young athlete who hopes to play professional baseball?

A: Just have fun playing the game. In anything you do, if you work hard enough, you will see results and you will reach your dreams.

Wright pitched for the Angels from 1966-73. A winner of 22 games in 1970, Wright was an All-Star that year while accumulating both A.L. CY Young and MVP votes.

HE SAID IT:

Kyle Hendricks told the Orange County Register the following in 2016: "I was told by my dad and a lot of other people to not try to be something I'm not. That's what I try to tell kids at camps. I never had the power stuff. Move the ball and manage the fastball and you can still succeed."

MIRROR IMAGE: TORII HUNTER & MIKE TROUT

Long-time Angels fans have seen this successful formula work before.

Some 15 years ago Torii Hunter shifted to right field to accommodate a young Mike Trout to play center field. Trout this season has moved to right field.

As the change formally got underway during spring training, Hunter – now a Special Assistant to Angels General Manager Perry Minasian – was in Arizona to assist his former teammate, with the move aimed to help lessen Trout's workload.

"Man, we chat all the time, and Trout always asks questions," Hunter told MLB.com. "He asked so many questions [as a youngster], and still, to this day, a guy who's a superstar Hall of Famer in the future and this guy still asks questions. That ought to let you know who he is."

In 2010, Hunter made the shift himself. He ended up playing five full seasons in right, capturing a Silver Slugger Award in 2013. He played until age 40.

He admitted it took time to process the change.

"It hurts for a minute, because it's your dream," Hunter said. "But at the same time, I knew where I was in my career. And when I got to right field, man, my body felt great, and my numbers were better average-wise, I stayed on the field, I played 37, 38, 39 even 40 playing in right field, and I was able to go out and put up some good numbers for an older guy."

Hunter knows Angel Stadium well.

"In the first couple months, I think he's going to have a problem with those (stadium) lights, but I'm here to kind of help them out and where to play," Hunter said. "It's the way you line up in right field. You stay on the left side toward center field, you actually don't run into the lights as much."

The ultimate teammate and a guy who earned nine Gold Gloves, Trout knows he can always rely on his friend and mentor.

"The first thing that came to my mind was Torii [Hunter]... It made it easier now that I've got someone I can talk to," Trout said at the start of the season.
